How do I get in to LSPR Institute? What is the entry exam about and what are the other procedures?

There are several steps you must follow as described below:
First, please purchase a Registration Form from the Marketing/Admissions Department at either Campus A or B.
Second, please complete all the requirements/questions stated in the Registration Form.
After all the requirements are completed, you will be informed the date to take the entry test (Written & Interview). The test material will cover General Knowledge / Math Logic and English. If a student passes the entry exam, he/she along with his/her parents will be scheduled for an interview. In the interview, the parents along with the student will be briefed on some information regarding the regulations and rules of STIKOM LSPR and regarding the payment procedures as well.
After the payments have been completed and reported to LSPR Institute, the student can immediately choose his/her schedule and class.

Note:
Registration Forms are also available in selected schools. LSPR Institute offers Entrance Examinations outside the city.
Do the students in LSPR Institute get any extra-curricular activities? What is the schedule for extra-curricular activities?

At LSPR Institute, we have 12 clubs. Among them are: Teatro London School, LSPR Choir, LSPR Modelling club, LSPR Public Speaking club, LSPR Marketing club, LSPR Community Relations, LSPR Advertising Society, LSPR Basketball Team, LSPR Hockey Team, LSPR 4C (Climate Change Champions Club), ADSA (Aids, Drugs n Sex Awareness) club and LSPR Band. The clubs are provided for the students of LSPR Institute free of charge. Schedules of clubs do not interfere with the students academic schedule.

Are the graduates of LSPR Institute ensured employment?

After graduating, our alumni will be assisted in looking for employment with the help of the Career Centre. The Career Centre can provide links for jobs from several companies that LSPR Institute is in partnership with. Among them are Mitra Adi Perkasa, Tbk and Mandarin Oriental Hotel and we are now in progress of creating partnerships with other companies. Should there be any job openings or vacancies in our partner companies, LSPR Institute will be informed in advance.

LSPR - Jakarta established the Centre for Excellence in English, or more commonly known as English Division, in 2006. English Division supports LSPR students in their language learning to inspire confidence and competence in English for the purpose of academic and business achievement. The UK international certification, Aptis, gained by students in their sixth semester equips them for success both in internship and their future career as a communication professional, with the ability to use English as a communication medium in the arena of the Indonesian and ASEAN business community. English Division also provides English language support to the LSPR community as a whole.
LSPR Student Talent Management Centre (STMC) cultivates the innate talent of artistic LSPR students through its different cultural organizations representing Dance, Theatre, Film and Broadcast, and communication arts. Students are trained not only to become excellent performers but excellent managers as well. These groups also hold outreach programs to promote the arts in society through performances. STMC also gives students the opportunity to be involved in the industry, because it will be interesting to see the connection between industry and a student’s talent and academic performance. This division develops and enhances the talents of student artists to become world class performers, event, and arts managers. STMC delivers learning based art to develop knowledge in society.
ASEAN Public Relations Network (APRN) was formed as a platform for Public Relations (PR) Leaders, Educators, Practitioners and others in 10 ASEAN Member countries with the aim to connect, meet, discuss, share current issues and create integrated programs that will develop the quality of PR in ASEAN countries. The objective is to champion connectivity, friendship and mutual understanding among ASEAN member countries, to gain skills and strength from one another’s PR best practices; APRN will conduct regular activities that benefit PR Societies in general especially its members. Any collaborative effort to strengthen the ties among the ASEAN member countries will be the utmost priority for the network.
LSPR Centre For ASEAN Public Relations Studies was wholeheartedly endorsed by LSPR - Jakarta for the ASEAN Economic Community in 2015. The scope of activities at the LSPR Centre of study on ASEAN PR is education, research and community services. Educational activities take place such as seminars, workshops, discussions and internships. It also conducts scientific assessments of the ASEAN regional issues on Public Relations. Community service activities include socialization, dissemination and counselling to increase knowledge and awareness of ASEAN stakeholders. With the support from competent lecturers and researchers from LSPR-Jakarta, it is expected that the Centre of Study on ASEAN PR will conduct studies on the competitiveness of Indonesia and ASEAN Countries.
Indonesia Drama Educators Association (IDEAL) is an Indonesian drama educators association that supports and promotes the development of educational drama and also has the function of therapy and performances. IDEAL is committed to carry out a program of action for the development of the skills of effective Indonesian drama educators. Along with the inauguration of IDEAL in February 2011, IDEAL also publishes DRAMAKALA, which acts as a medium of communication for drama and theatre. This bulletin is published every 2 months and distributed to members and associates of IDEAL at no charge. Starting in 2012, every February, IDEAL organizes “IDEAL-DRAMAKALA Festival”, which is a short drama and monologue competition between theatres at national level.
Inviting all young Indonesians to participate and care about tourism in Indonesia, especially when getting a very significant impact from the COVID-19 pandemic, LSPR Institute and KEMENPAREKRAF took the initiative to create a digital competition. Whereas, this competition relies on the creativity of young people through photos, videos and digital illustrations about tourism in Indonesia.

This competition is intended for all Indonesian citizens (WNI), especially high school or vocational students (15-18 years old). Exploring the creativity of young people for Indonesian tourism is another reason this competition took place. This series of competitions started from kick off on 2 July 2021, as the opening of registration via this link https://bit.ly/REGDigitalTourismCompetition2021 which then the competition period took place on 2 July – 27 August 2021, where all participants must upload their work digitally through their respective Instagram and make sure the Instagram account is not in private mode (protected account) and submit the narration via caption of the posts using the hashtag #KharismaEventNusantara2021 #TourismLSPR #LSPRTourismDigitalCompetition2021 and registration will be closed on 6 August, 2021. Kharisma Event 2021 has its own advantages and uniqueness, because it will summarise various kinds of events that exist in all provinces in Indonesia, from the small village to the province level.

The following categories of events are contested:

- Maluku Utara: Festival Teluk Jailolo
- Bali - Denpasar: Pesta Kesenian Bali
- Bali - Ubud: Ubud Writers & Readers Festival
- Sumatera Utara - Bukit Singgolom: Toba Caldera World Music Festival
- Banda Aceh: Aceh Culinary Festival
- Jawa Tengah - Klaten: Festival Payung Indonesia
- DKI Jakarta: Jakarta Dessert Week
- Jawa Timur - Banyuwangi: Banyuwangi Ethno Carnival
- Jawa Barat - Majalengka: Ceramic Music Festival
- D.I. Yogyakarta: Ngayogjazz

It is hoped that this competition will increase public awareness in rebuilding Indonesian tourism, as well as promote and introduce Tourism Events in Indonesia and provide information about the Faculty of Business at LSPR. In addition, this competition is a means of socializing the CHSE protocol in organizing activities or events. Primarily, with this event, it is hoped that it can help move the national economy which has been slumped due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
The London School of Autism Awareness Centre (LSCAA) is one of the forms of LSPR’s Corporate Social Responsibility. LSCAA scope of activities are, Seminars, Training for teachers and companies, Film Screening to Primary Schools, and the annual Autism Awareness Festival (AAF) event. In the AAF event, LSCAA provides opportunities for special needs individuals to participate in art performances such as dance and music. LSCAA also participated with the Korean Cultural Center (KCC), and sent the winners of a music competition to South Korea to attend the Pyeongchang Special Music & Arts Festival. In addition LSCAA also created a Special Friends Community that is intended to gather volunteers to assist students with special needs in public elementary schools to study. LSCAA was recently chosen as the ASEAN AUTISM NETWORK secretariat.

The London School Beyond Academy (LSBA) is a development of the vision of the London School Centre for Autism Awareness (LSCAA) which presents a new spirit and hope for parents who have sons and daughters with special needs. In addition, LSBA is expected to be able to explore the potential of children with special needs and be able to provide skills for the children to be able to work in the future. In LSBA they can get education related to skills such as Graphic Design, Photography and Craft, Bakery, Office Administration, Printing.
LSPR Cares was established in 2009 by involving students, staff and lecturers of LSPR - Jakarta. LSPR Cares is an association that was formed to react when a disaster strikes in Indonesia. Through LSPR Cares, students, staff and lecturers of LSPR can contribute by helping victims in need. LSPR Cares activities have helped the Padang earthquake victims, [Mount Merapi eruption] victims, held social events for [World] AIDS Day, as well as many others.

LSPR Cares for Education is a further development of LSPR Cares Programs. The objective of LSPR Cares for Education is to raise awareness about Education to help children all over Indonesia who live in remote area and lack education facilities or support systems. LSPR Cares for Education auditions a number of students who are taught teaching skills and survival skills which are used when they are sent to remote destinations. Each year, LSPR Cares for Education sends 10 LSPR Students to teach in remote areas in Indonesia.
LSPR Green Movement

From until now, LSPR 4C have planted around 10,000 mangroves.

LSPR 4C with Aston Simatupang and WAHMI have planted 500 Mangroves at Pesisir Marunda Jakarta Utara.

The flood and landslide that struck Nusa Tenggara on April, 4 2021 submerged several cities located in Eastern Nusa Tenggara province. These natural phenomenons caused by the Seroja Tropical Cyclone resulted in 181 deaths and 48 people were claimed as missing, and caused other affected Nusa Tenggara residents to evacuate. LSPR Cares, LSPR YDC, and LSPR Student League raised funds in the form of items such as usable clothes, sleeping and sanitary needs, and mattresses along with an amount of money to support the impacted civilians. The gathered items and money were given directly on April, 20 2021 to “Posko Satu Hati Untuk NTT“ through the representatives from LSPR Student League.

The beginning of 2021 doesn’t start as well as everyone wished for. There are at least five natural disasters happening in the early three months of 2021, which are Sumedang landslide, South Kalimantan flood, Majene earthquake, Demak tornado, and massive flood and earthquake in Nusa Tenggara. Seeing all of the phenomenon happening at once, LSPR Cares and LSPR YDC along with LSPR Student League, LSPR Peduli, and LSPR Rescue initiates the idea to create #PrayforIndonesia CSR activity through fundraisings to solve several natural marvels. The donations were given and received through the hands of Human Initiative’s representative on March, 29 2021 in LSPR Sudirman Campus, Jakarta.
The floods that struck DKI Jakarta since January 2, 2020 have submerged a number of big cities in DKI Jakarta. The disaster caused by heavy rains that have occurred since the end of 2019 has inundated many parts of the big cities of DKI Jakarta, one of which is Sudirman, Central Jakarta, and caused thousands of Jakartans to evacuate. LSPR Rescue collaborated with the LSPR Student League to directly provide donations in the form of items such as suitable clothing, sleeping equipment, toiletries and mattresses, food and some money to help the victims affected by the natural disaster. The results of the collection of donations were given directly on January 2, 2020 to one of the representatives of residents in the Sudirman area through representatives from the LSPR Student League and LSPR Rescue.

LSPR 4C and LSPR CARES act as Rangers of Change of LSPR and have carried out joint CSR activities. In a series of #AksiDemiBumi campaigns with @jaga.ind, LSPR 4C and LSPR CARES have distributed the proceeds from the sale of waste to make this donation. Donations in the form of basic necessities were handed over on 5th February 2021 to 90 LSPR staff affected by the Covid-19 pandemic.
Every year, LSPRTV carries out CSR activities that aim to celebrate and feel the nuances of the Month of Ramadan together among LSPRTV members by helping each other virtually. In this event, LSPRTV invited all the members to participate in helping Warung Makan Rakyat. Warung Makan Rakyat is a restaurant that provides free food for people who really need it, such as Online Drivers, etc. This donation was conducted on April 26 – May 05, 2021. The Organizing Committee, Student League, and Club Coordinator handed over the collected donations directly to the Head of Warung Makan Rakyat on May 6, 2021. Total Donations were Rp. 1,700,000, 5pcs of rice (5kg), 5 pcs of hand sanitizer, 2 boxes of masks, and 48 bottles of mineral. We hope that this event can help the operational development of Warung Makan Rakyat in providing food to others in need.

We live in a smaller world. More contacts, more exchanges, more connected. Daily life in the 21st century is shaped as it is by the effects of globalization. Communication is at the core of this, allowing us to explore and learn about other cultures, strengthen social ties, create business and personal relationships, and facilitate exchange of information. It is a pleasure to be a part of LSPR-Jakarta with international standard quality education to understand how communication is an exciting, dynamic and fast evolving area of study and work. I believe LSPR-Jakarta will continue to grow and become one of the best in Asia!

The Synergy of Three Campuses to Create Citarum Harum through the “Citarum Sehat, Indonesia Kuat” Programme

Various universities in the Kopertis III area synergise to contribute in implementing Presidential Regulation Number 15 of 2018 regarding the acceleration in pollution control and damage to ecosystems in the Citarum watershed (DAS). In February 2018, the central government launched the “Citarum Harum” program to restore the condition of the longest river in West Java.

Academics from LSPR Jakarta, Krisnadwipayana University and Mpu Tantular University contributed in the “Citarum Harum” program and worked together to preserve the Citarum watershed. The “Citarum Sehat, Indonesia Kuat” program is one of a series of “Citarum Harum” activities in Sector XVIII under the coordination of Mercu Buana University. This program consists of various educational activities for the community to build awareness to protect the environment. The “Citarum Sehat, Indonesia Kuat” program was held in Rumambe 2 hamlet, Anggadita Village, East Karawang on Saturday, 27 October 2018.

According to Yuliana R. Prasetyawati, M.M., as the coordinator of the State Defense sub-sector, the “Citarum Sehat, Indonesia Kuat” program aims to build a community culture that is environmentally aware. The problems that exist in Citarum are not only related to pollution but it’s also because of low environmental awareness, she continued. Other activities in the “Citarum Sehat, Indonesia Kuat” program are “Indonesia Kuat” thematic story telling, educating national character through games, fostering national character in families for 50 Kader PKK as well as fostering national and anti-drug characters for 50 Youths/I Karang Taruna in Rumambe 2 hamlet.
Global Capability Framework – Indonesian Perspectives Soft Launching

Jakarta – ASEAN Public Relations Network (APRN) in collaboration with the LSPR Research Center has organized a soft launching of the “Global Capability Framework for Public Relations and Communication Management Profession” from Indonesian perspective. The soft launching was held on Wednesday, 23 December 2020 at 15.00-16.30 WIB through Zoom platform. This soft launching aimed to discuss the results of research on the global capability framework for public relations and communication management profession from Indonesian perspective so that in the future this research can become a reference in learning and implementing public relations capabilities, especially in conducting research, PR plan & strategy in the future.

The event began with a keynote from Mrs. Prita Kemal Gani, MBA, MCIPR, APR as CEO of LSPR Communication & Business Institute and President of ASEAN PR Network. Then the Opening Remarks from Prof. Anne as Research Director, Global Capabilities Project University of Huddersfield, UK. After the remarks were delivered, this event entered into a discussion of the research results represented by Mr. Rendro Dhani, PhD as Head of Research Centre and Lecturer at LSPR Communication & Business Institute and Mrs. Yuliana R. Prasetyawati, M.M as Head of Undergraduate Programme in Management at LSPR Communication & Business Institute as the speakers and moderated by Mrs. Sophia Bernadette, S.E, M.I.Kom as Director of Training & Development of APRN and Lecturer at LSPR Communication & Business Institute.

Entering the core of this event, Mr. Rendro and Mrs. Yuliana explained in detail the project overview, data collection technique, to the results and important points of the research that had been carried out. “… The timeline of the research is almost 2 years. This is quite a long study because we want to give the best results. From July 2019 to October 2020,” said Mrs. Yuliana. At the end of the soft launching, the speakers said that with the completion of the results of this research, Indonesia had succeeded in becoming the first of five other countries that had completed research on the global capabilities framework. “With pride, our research team announced the ten capabilities and sub-capabilities of Public Relations in Indonesia.”
Jakarta – Tuesday, February 16, 2021, the ASEAN Public Relations Network (APRN) in collaboration with the LSPR Research Center held the ASEAN SPOT 9th Talk Series entitled “The Grand Launching of Global Capability Framework – Indonesia Perspective,” which was held from 14.00 to 16.00 WIB and broadcast live on the Zoom Meeting platform.

This event was moderated by Sophia Bernadette, S.E, M.I.Kom and attended by Rendro Dhani, PhD, Dr. Nia Sarinastiti, and Boy Kelana Soebroto as speakers. ASEAN SPOT Virtual 9th Talk Series was hosted by Ms. Candy Hernandez, M.Si, Managing Director of ASEAN PR Network. It started with various video congratulatory remarks from ASEAN PR Network member Associations from all over the region, followed by the welcoming remarks and presentation from Prita Kemal Gani, MBA, MCIPR, APR as CEO of LSPR Communication & Business Institute and President of ASEAN PR Network, then continued with remarks from Dr. Rudi Sukandar, Director of LSPR Centre for Research, Publication and Community Service, followed by our Keynote Speaker Prof. Anne Gregory as Research Director, Global Capabilities Project, University of Huddersfield, UK. After that, the discussion regarding the launch of the Global Capability Framework was started by Rendro Dhani, PhD as the head of the Research Center and a lecturer at the LSPR Communication & Business Institute who explained the Global Capability Framework research project and its results, he also explained the research methods used by his team and showed one by one the results of the methods that his team uses, he also explains about the capabilities that need to be owned by Public Relations both from an Indonesian perspective and a global perspective. The discussion continued by Dr. Nia Sarinastiti, who is a senior lecturer at Atmajaya Christian University discussed the skills required for Public Relations in the industry and requirements of Public Relations to be able to work. Then Boy Kelana Soebroto as vice chairman III of BPP PERHUMAS continued the discussion by explaining how Public Relations works in a crisis and discussing the capabilities and sub-capabilities that Public Relations should have.

In the question and answer session, all speakers agreed that the main capability that must be possessed by Public Relations is ethics, according to Boy Kelana Soebroto, ethics is an important capability and he considers ethics to be the basis of all capabilities that need to be owned by Public Relations. Prof. Anne also added that interpersonal communication is also a major capability in Indonesia and this is a positive thing.
In this era, the dynamics of the public or the community are getting bigger and developing. The demands, desires and expectations of the public towards the fulfilment of information needs are increasingly critical. Changes in public’s or community’s behaviour are faster and this is also supported by the development of communication technology that is also faster, with the internet as an online media. Seeing these conditions and situations, the role of Public Relations is increasingly needed. The function of Public Relations will be felt when companies / institutions try to develop businesses, socialize company activities or avoid situations that are less conducive to the environment.

Therefore, LSPR Communication & Business Institute Jakarta has a PR Professional Certification Agency that is licensed by the government through the National Professional Certification Board (BNSP) to maintain the competence of Public Relations and meet the appropriate national standard.

The Professional Certification Body - London School Public Relations (LSP - LSPR) carried out the Workshop and Public Relations Certification Test for the Supreme Court of the Republic of Indonesia. The workshop was conducted on 16 to 19 September, 2019 with the theme of Media Management & Higher Competencies in Public Relations.

Beginning with an interactive panel discussion focused on Media Management and the Strategy for Forming Public Opinion in the Media, then on 20 September, 2019 ended with the Professional Certification Test. This activity was held at the Republic of Indonesia Supreme Court Training Centre, Jalan Cikopo Selatan, Gadog, Megamendung.

In addition, the London School of Public Relations Journalists Competency Testing Body (LPKW-LSPR) in 2013, obtained permits as Journalist and Journalist Skills Testers Body, number 04-LPPT / SK-DP / IX / 2013 and have held tests in several cities in Indonesia including Semarang, Lampung, Palopo - Central Sulawesi, Ternate, which was attended by journalists and some media from the area. We have also conducted Journalist Competency Test with several mainstream media, including Kumparan.com, Tirto.id, lpotnews & Opinion.id, SWA, etc.
